

2017 Blind Boone Piano Concert Series

Concert Schedule

January 16 – There will be two pianos for the husband-wife team of Ayako Tsuruta and Peter Miyamoto, a pair of internationally known concert veterans who will play everything from Broadway to Beethoven with two hands, four hands and on two keyboards. 7pm.

April 10 – The kids from the Missouri Symphony Society Conservatory will welcome two special guests – conservatory director Kirk Trevor and his wife, Maria, who will entertain with a cello-harp duet. 7pm.

May 22 – Audra Sergel and her jazz quartet will return with an evening of jazz, Broadway, pops and original works by this talented composer. Expect skilled guest vocalists. 7pm

June 25 (2:00 p.m.) – Bob Milne, Famed Ragtime pianist (Milne has performed at the White House and recorded for the Library of Congress Ragtime project)
Note: This is a special event and not a part of the season ticket package.

July 17 – Derrick Enyard and Friends. Derrick has performed in the concert series in the past Dixieland percussionist and vocalist, but now returns as leader of his own group that will showcase hip-hop, the blues, soul, Dixieland and a touch of modern jazz. 7pm

Sept. 11 - Sutu Forte will visit and bring along her longtime buddy, Ludwig Von Beethoven – and who knows who else. 7pm

Nov. 13 – Pianist Tom Andes (Murry's) and storyteller/vocalist Rob Doyen, both Stephens College staff musicians, will be joined by two Stephens musical theater majors to present an early Broadway Christmas.
