A fun and entertaining mystery series is unleashed... The Pampered Pets

Mystery Series In posh Laguna Beach things have gone to the dogs with misbehaving pooches, misleading stories, and...murder. It's up to Texas cousins and former beauty queens, Caro Lamont and Mel Langston, to find out whodunit in the wacky world of precious pedigrees, pampered pets and secrets. Come meet Iowa writing team Anita Carter and Mary Lee Woods discuss their hysterical mystery series. This is their first book talk appearance in Columbia.
