

2018 Concert Series Announced!

Folks, get your season tickets now by calling 573-443-8936, or by going online to buy a season pass for $100. That's $20 off the regular price of six concerts. You get six for the price of five! Here are the dates to put on your calendar. All times are 7pm unless otherwise indicated.

January 22 – Derrick Enyard: The Roots of Black Music in America – African, Spirituals, Folk Blues & Jazz. This will be Derricks fifth appearance in our series as either a percussionist for Audra Sergel or as a headliner.

March 25 – (Sunday, 2pm) Iskander Akhmadullin & Natalia Bolshakova: Gershwin & Shostakovich. The husband and wife team make their debut in this series. He, a trumpeter, and she, a pianist, are both extraordinary musicians.

May 20 – (Sunday, 2pm) Audra Sergel, Joel Anderson & Friends. One of our favorite vocalists returns to deliver original tunes, standards and jazz.

July 16 – TBD

September 24 – Merry Ellen Kirk, hometown girl and up and coming recording artist will be at the piano and will bring string accompaniment to join her lovely voice on her original, soft love songs.

December 4 – Molly Denninghoff, another hometown girl, will come in from Chicago to delivery standards and holiday cheer!
